THE MOD'S INSURANCE ARRANGEMENTS – CAPTAIN NAVAL RECRUITING SPONSORED VISITS

1. The MOD does not purchase insurance policies but accepts its own risks and acts as its own insurer. I can confirm that the MOD will deal with any claims for compensation arising against it on the basis of its legal liability to make payment, which is to say any claim that arises due to the negligent actions or omissions of the MOD, its personnel, servants or agents. Any such claim should be forwarded to:

Ministry of Defence
Directorate of Judicial Engagement Policy
Common Law Claims & Policy
Public Liability Team
Level 3, Zone I
MOD Main Building
Whitehall
London SW1A 2HB

2. The MOD's cover is without financial limit.

3. The MOD deals with claims on the basis of its Legal Liability to do so in common law, which means that MOD will pay compensation where it can be shown that the MOD, its servants or agents, have acted negligently in the course of their official duty and caused another party to suffer injury or loss. Therefore, participants are strongly advised to consider taking out Personal Accident Insurance (PAI) to provide themselves with some form of cover should they be injured as a result of a pure accident or an 'Act of God'.

Yours faithfully,

Adrian Nash
